Years 7 – 10 Celebration Events and End of School Year

Foreword by Mr Law, Headteacher

It seems that summer has finally arrived and the good weather has certainly lifted the spirits in school. There is a lot going on this term and you will see from this Newsletter that the second half of the summer term brings with it both new opportunities and some long-awaited restored ones for students.

I hope you find the combination of news, celebration and advice both helpful and indicative of brighter days to come for all our young people.

Year 9 - Tenner Challenge

The Tenner Challenge is a free national challenge for students aged 11 – 18. Over the course of four weeks, students will use £10 pledges to get their student business ideas off the ground. It's an interactive programme that helps students to develop key employability skills including creativity, resilience and problem solving.

For my group's Tenner Challenge, we decided to make beeswax candles, beeswax melts and beeswax blocks. We hope you enjoyed the smell!

Prices:

Beeswax Candle - £1 each or 3 for £2.50

Beeswax Melt - 30p each or 4 for £1

Beeswax block - 70p each or 3 for £2

Euan B 9W

As part of the Tenner Challenge this year, we sold a range of bespoke, inspirational, and comical coasters designed and manufactured by our team.

Dominic, Henry, Joshua, Olly B, Ollie C, and Nithyan.

Squeaky Clean Car Washing

As part of Year 9s 'Tenner Challenge', a group of students decided to clean cars at break times.

Interior cleaning was also offered. It looks like they were very busy and offered a good service.

Prices charged:

Exterior £10

Interior £8

Interior and exterior £15

Nick and Harry 9B

Between them, the teams made a profit of £339.35, with the most raised by an individual team of £146 by making personalised coasters. Another team that made handmade wooden fidget toys donated their £65 to MNDA.

Well Done Year 9s

Year 11 History Workshop

On Wednesday 9 June, Year 11 students planning to study History at A Level had the opportunity to join a preview School's History Project workshop provided for Carre's students with Alex Ford (University lecturer from Leeds Trinity University and author of our GCSE textbook). He got us thinking about how history is constructed and how these constructions have real impacts for people today. Students were also introduced to ideas about settler colonialism as well as how to engage with reading history critically and understanding the processes by which historical interpretations are created. At the end of the session there was the opportunity for students to ask questions.

There will be a further two workshops later in June, anyone who wants to join these sessions (which are open to all schools) should contact Mrs Wilson.

The Historical Association Honorary Fellows 2021

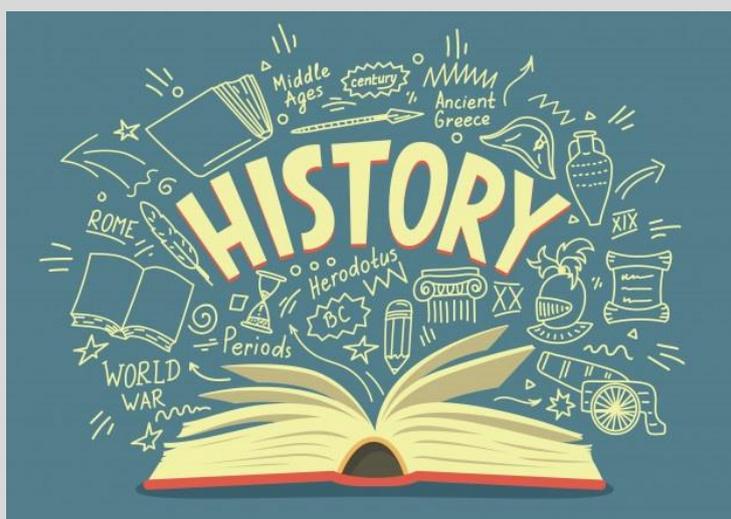

The HA has a number of Fellowships and Fellows. Some are for teaching achievements, some are from participation on a course or similar, others are for lengthy membership such as our Jubilee Fellows – and then we have our Honorary Fellows. These are awarded to people who have shown dedication to history teaching, to the study of history, to the support of other history professionals and to the HA and its remit.

A limited number of people are made Honorary Fellows each year following nominations from the HA Branches and committees, with final approval coming from the governing body of the HA. It is, therefore, a prestigious award amongst the history and teaching communities.

This year we are delighted to announce that 16 Honorary Fellowships have been awarded to Sally Burnham.

Mrs Sally Wilson (aka Sally Burnham), Teacher of History, has been invited to attend this ceremony in London in September.

Well done Mrs Wilson!

Institute of Chartered Accountants (BASE ICAEW)

Each year the Institute of Chartered Accountants runs a school-based competition to create awareness of the industry and help develop employability skills in young people. The teams of 4 take part in an online 'game' which looks discreetly at their employability skills, before having to submit a presentation on a particular business scenario. 100's of teams and 1,000's of students enter each year and in previous years, the top 48 teams progress through to the live national final, normally in a plush hotel and involving an overnight stay.

This year, due to restrictions, the national final will be a virtual event with only the top 24 teams in the country going through. I am pleased to say that a team from our Year 12 CTEC Business class has made it through to the last 24 teams.

The participants are:

Molly, Eleanor, Liv and Esme

If you do see them around, please do congratulate them – this is a huge achievement already and they will gain so much from taking part in this process.

Duke of Edinburgh Award

The Robert Carre Trust Duke of Edinburgh Award expedition season 2021 is well underway after a difficult start to the year.

In May we managed to get the Year 9 students out on their day walks and training consolidation in and around the Sleaford area; on a weekend of two halves with rain and cold weather on the Saturday for the KSHS students and beautiful sunshine for the CGS students on Sunday.

We then took the Year 10 students to Sherwood Forest and surrounding area for their hybrid Silver practice and Bronze assessments (kept strictly within their year group and school bubbles) also in May.

Whilst most people were having a quiet half term, preparations were being made for the run of seven weekends in a row, starting on 11 June, to continue this season.

We have the Year 11 KSHS hybrid Silver practice and Bronze assessment first (the Year 10 CGS one was completed in October 2020) followed by the Year 9 assessments all in the Sherwood Forest area. We then change areas in July to complete Silver assessments for the Year 10 and 11 students in the Lincolnshire Wolds. Finally, also in July, we have a hybrid Gold practice and Silver assessed for the Year 12 students and Gold assessed for the Year 13 leavers, both in the Yorkshire Dales.

A huge thank you to the wonderful RCT DofE staff volunteer team without whom we could not achieve what we have done, particularly during the difficult last 18 months.

The opportunity for these students to get out in the fresh air and countryside to complete something positive is so beneficial for their mental wellbeing and development of independence, teamwork, and social skills. A piece of normality in these challenging times.

I am thrilled to have enabled in the region of 300 students with their expedition section, (despite the delays as a result of Covid) with many of them completing Bronze and Silver, or Silver and Gold this 2021 season.

Furthermore 110 students who chose not to take part in the expeditions have completed a Certificate of Achievement offered during these unprecedented times by the Duke of Edinburgh Award to recognise the hard work of students in completing a Volunteering, Physical and Skills activity (which is three quarters of a full award) at any level.

Congratulations to all involved and a huge welcome to the Year 8 students currently registering to do their Bronze award and others registering to continue their Duke of Edinburgh Award journey in 2022.

DofE Co-ordinator

ART

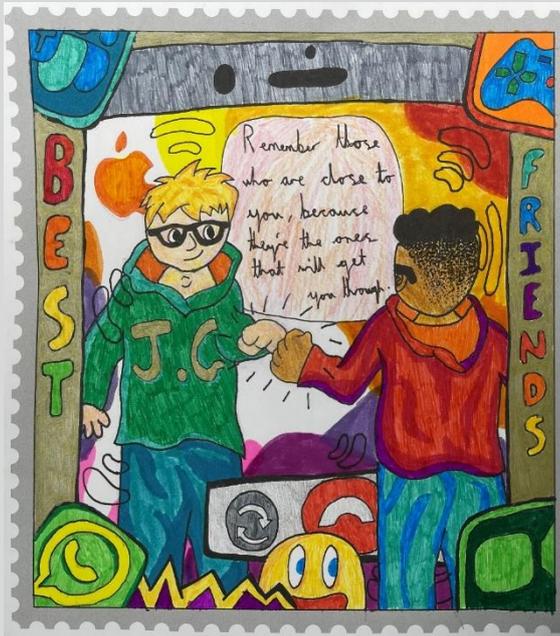

In April the Royal Mail launched a new competition for school children to design a stamp. The theme was 'Covid Hero'. This could be anyone who the students thought worked extra hard during the pandemic, such as teachers, cleaners, supermarket workers or doctors and nurses.

Here is a selection of our entries:

The competition closed on 28 May and the winners will be announced by Royal Mail in the autumn.

LRC NEWS

In recognition of Pride Month 2021, we have a display of a wide range of LGBTQ+ books in the LRC. The LRC displays are constantly changing to highlight the wide variety of stock that we have, and to reflect current events.

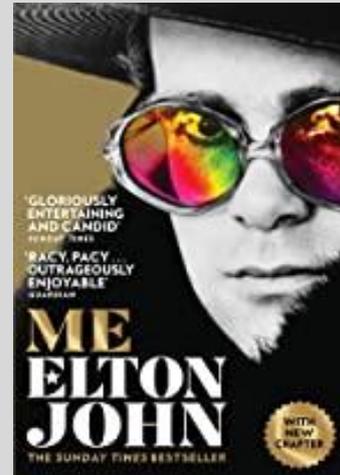

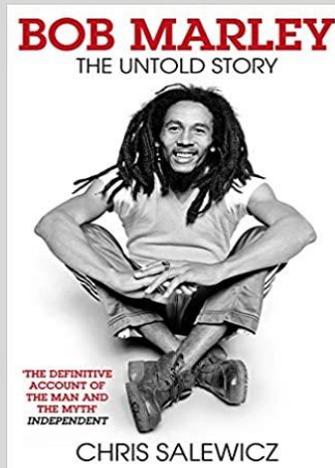

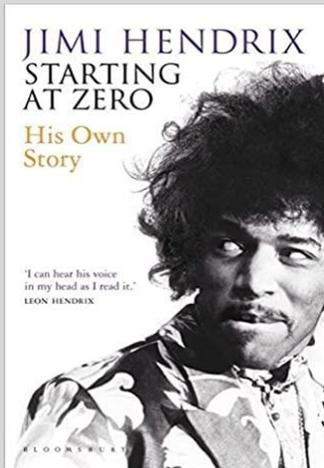

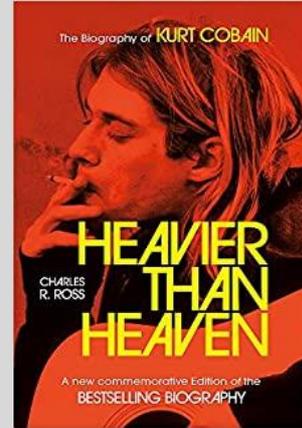

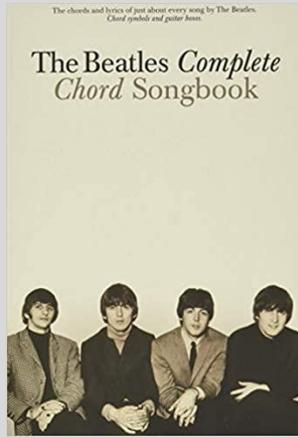

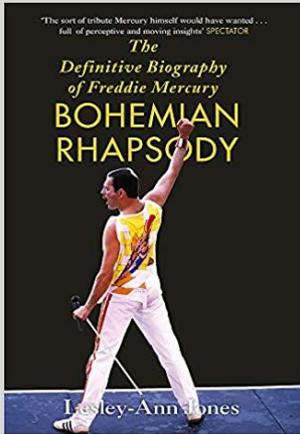

It is hoped that this display will be of relevance to all students as it promotes the strong ethos at Carre's of acceptance and inclusivity for all.

Other current displays include a rock music icons display which showcases some fantastic biographies and sheet music books that we have in the LRC. The collection ranges from classics such as the Beatles and Queen to more recent music stars.

As always if any students have any ideas about the types of books that they would like to see in the LRC, please could they let me know so that I can adapt stock and keep it relevant. I am also always on hand to provide reading recommendations and suggestions for students who are struggling to find the right book!

Happy Reading!!!

Twinning Opportunities

Sleaford and District Twinning Association is keen to encourage students to take part in visits and hospitality.

Sleaford is twinned with a small town near Lille and another near Berlin. In “normal” times the Association visits each country and receives visitors once a year, thus providing fabulous opportunities to practise French and/or German. As the Association stays in each other’s homes they learn those all-important phrases and customs which bring the language alive.

Over the years groups of young people have taken part in organised music, sport and language visits but the Association wants to encourage individual students to come on an adventure with us.

Email: sleafordtwinning@gmail.com and a real person will get back to you.

Jan Mathieson
Chairperson - Sleaford and District Twinning Association

Wellbeing for All

There is great anticipation about the 21 June as this might be a step towards normality. However, the effects of the last year will continue and lockdown has been difficult for many of us for a variety of reasons. In full lockdown things might have felt more certain or predictable, as the rules were clearer, but now that lockdown restrictions are easing things might feel less clear, and there may be new challenges and it can feel stressful when things are changing.

For students who may be feeling overwhelmed, they can ring HOPELINEUK. <https://www.papyrus-uk.org/hopelineuk/>. HOPELINK is a confidential support and advice service for children and young people under the age of 35 who are experiencing thoughts of suicide.

Alternatively, students can text YoungMinds Crisis Messenger service and a counsellor will talk things through with them. The YoungMinds Crisis Messenger text service provides free, 24/7 crisis support across the UK. If they are experiencing a mental health crisis and need support, they can text YM to 85258. Finding the right support is important, especially if they need someone to talk to straight away. They aim to connect every texter to a trained volunteer promptly to provide crisis help. They will listen to them and help them think more clearly, enabling them to know that they can take the next step to feeling better.

For over 18s there is a really helpful resource from SilverCloud. The SilverCloud ‘Space from Covid’ programme is made up of six modules. Each module provides clinically backed support for trouble sleeping, coping with stress, developing mindfulness, financial worries and experiencing grief and loss. SilverCloud is offering this service completely free of charge and for anyone to use. The average module takes 30 minutes to complete and is accessible 24/7 from a smartphone, tablet or computer. You can sign up at the following link: <https://www.silvercloudhealth.com/uk/landing-page/space-from-covid>.

The following link takes you to some videos for all sorts of tips on exercise, sleep and how to take care of yourself on social media (particularly important for young people).

Following the UK's departure from the European Union, EU/EEA/Swiss citizens who want to live in the UK need to apply for a new immigration status.

The EU Settlement Scheme (EUSS) grants EU Citizens and their families currently living in the UK the right to continue living in the UK after Brexit, and specifically their rights to live, work, study rent, use the NHS, and claim benefits.

Everyone must make an application, including children.

Applications for children are individual and separate from those of their parents. Childrens' immigration status is not automatically guaranteed by their parents' status!

The deadline to apply to the EU Settlement Scheme is the 30 June 2021. Any EU, EEA or Swiss child who has not applied under the scheme by this deadline – and does not have an alternative legal status (e.g. British citizenship) – may be considered unlawfully resident in the UK and may be prevented from attending nurseries or schools.

Some of the children born in the UK may not automatically be British and need to apply to the EUSS.
